

Classroom Instructional Volunteer

What is a classroom support volunteer?

The Classroom
Instructional
Volunteers help lead small groups of students in a variety of activities.

Key Responsibilities

- Lead small groups to engage in a teacher assigned task on a regular weekly basis
- May work one-to-one with a student
- Use positive language and encouragement

Volunteer Resources

- Volunteer handbook
- Veteran parents who have done this before
- Classroom Teacher
- Resource Books in Library

Tips for Working with Students

- Use a signal to get attention
- Set expectations for your time together
- Give each group member a role
- Encourage positive behaviors by incorporating choices
- Visual cues can minimize interruptions
- Allow for a quick reflection of how things went at the end of your time together.
- Consult with teacher if challenges are being experienced

Important Tips

Connect

Connecting with other Classroom Instructional Volunteers can help you with ideas. You can view a list of Classroom Instructional Volunteers on Konstella

Collaborate

Partnering with the classroom teacher can help you share ideas.

Check-In

A regular check-in with the classroom teacher will ensure you are always in the know!

Confidentiality

In your role, you will have conversations that may include sensitive details about students and families. It is important to respect their privacy. Only speak about students or families with the classroom teacher or the school administration.