What is Bullying?

Bullying Is

- Aggressive Behavior
- Power Imbalance
- Repetitive

Bullying is Not

- An argument or disagreement without power imbalance
- An isolated aggressive behavior

Bullying Actions

- Making Threats
- Spreading Rumors
- Attacking someone physically or verbally
- Excluding someone from a group on purpose

What Can We Do?

- Model positive ways for children to make friends?
- Praise children for appropriate behavior
- Help children understand the consequences of their actions
- Encourage children to tell an adult if they are feeling uncomfortable, hurt, upset or unhappy, or witness others being harmed
- Set clear rules for behavior and monitor children's interactions
- Stop or redirect aggressive behavior before it begins
- Use age appropriate consequences for aggressive behavior & support with how they may repair the harm they caused
