Signed Mandated Child Abuse Reporter Statement

Child Abuse Reporting Requirements

Section 11166 of the Penal Code requires a Mandated Reporter (child care custodian, health practitioner or employee of a child protective agency) who has knowledge of or observes a child in his/her professional capacity, or within the scope of his/her employment, whom he/she knows or reasonably suspects has been the victim of child abuse or neglect to report the known or suspected instance of child abuse to a child protective agency. The mandated reporter shall make an initial report to the agency immediately, or as soon as is practicably possible, by telephone. The mandated reporter shall prepare and send, fax, or electronically transmit a written follow-up report thereof within 36 hours of receiving the information concerning the incident. Failure to report an incident of known or reasonably suspected child abuse or neglect may be punishable by a fine and/or imprisonment.

"Child Care Custodian" includes teachers; an instructional aide, a teacher's aide, or a teacher's assistant employed by any public or private school; a classified employee of any public school; administrative officers, supervisors of child welfare and attendance, or certificated student personnel employees of any public or private school; administrators of a public or private day camp; administrators and employees of public or private youth centers, youth recreation programs and youth organizations; athletic coaches, administrators or directors; licensees, administrators, employees of licensed community care or child day care facilities; Head Start program teachers; licensing workers or licensing evaluators; public assistance workers; employees of a child care institution including, but not limited to, foster parents, group home personnel, and personnel of residential care facilities; social workers or probation officers; or any person who is an administrator or presenter of, or a counselor in, a child abuse prevention program in any public or private school.

"Health Practitioner" includes physicians and surgeons, psychiatrists, psychologists, dentists, residents, interns, podiatrists, chiropractors, licensed nurses, dental hygienists, optometrists, or any other person who is licensed under Division 2 (commencing with Section 500) of the Business and Professions Code; marriage, family and child counselors; emergency medical technicians I or II, paramedics, or other persons certificated pursuant to Division 2.5 (commencing with Section 1797) of the Health and Safety Code; psychological assistants registered pursuant to Section 2913 of the Business and Professions Code; marriage, family and child counselor trainees as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 4980.03 of the Business and Professions Code; unlicensed marriage, family and child counselor interns registered under Section 4980.44 of the Business and Professions Code; state or county public health employees who treat minors for venereal disease or any other condition; coroners; paramedics; and religious practitioners who diagnose, examine, or treat children.

I have been informed of the above law and will comply with its provisions.
